

A scenic view of a harbor with sailboats and a full moon, framed by a rustic, stone and brick archway. The scene is captured from an elevated position, looking down into the harbor. The water is calm, reflecting the light of the moon and the surrounding landscape. The archway is made of rough, weathered stone and brick, with some peeling white plaster. The sky is a mix of blue and green, suggesting a twilight or dawn setting. The hills in the background are covered in dense vegetation.
